

California State University, Sacramento Art Department, University Library Gallery and Sculpture Area is hosting Artist/Sculptor, Professor Emeritus David Middlebrook for a lecture and workshop in conjunction with his solo exhibition entitled "Balancing Act" on view at the University Library Gallery.

Please come and join us for this exciting event. Below is the schedule in brief.

Wednesday November 14

Reception:	5:30-6:30pm	University Library Gallery, pre-lecture informal conversation, hors d'oeuvres, and beverage
Lecture:	6:30-7:30pm	University Library Gallery, Annex Gallery
Reception:	7:30-9:00pm	Q&A, Gallery Talk (informal) University Library Gallery, Annex Gallery post-lecture informal conversation, hors d'oeuvres, and beverage

Thursday November 15

Gallery Talk:	10:00-12:00pm	University Library Gallery David Middlebrook will be discussing and revealing techniques used in the wide variety of works exhibited in the gallery. He will be making specific references to techniques that will be shared during the workshop at the Art Sculpture Lab
Lunch:	12:00-1:00pm	Campus eateries, students and guests will independently have lunch at campus cafeterias
Workshop:	1:00-6:00pm	Art Sculpture Lab 110 Workshop will be covering waste-molds, making and casting, clay forming and wax transfer, Styrofoam assembling, shaping and carving, wax casting from various types of molds and patinization over auto body paint on bronze or aluminum.
Closing Reception:	6:00-7:00pm	Art Sculpture Lab 110, David Middlebrook will be available for Q&A, during food and hors d'oeuvres.